Co-President's Message

The time has come. We will watch as the Colonel White site is transformed. For many, it may be nostalgic and sad, for others it is an anticipated event. In any case, the demolition of Colonel White High School will impact all of us for several months.

Following demolition the site will be green space maintained by the Dayton Public Schools. The Colonel White site committee will be meeting with Dr. Stanic, Superintendent of DPS and Mr. John Carr, Chief Construction Officer to continue our dialogue regarding the outcome for the site.

The immediate impact of the demolition may require patience and tolerance on our part. Mr. Carr has assured us that the process will be done in a very professional manner. We expect the demolition to go well. If you have questions or concerns call Lynette Lynn-Fraser at 277-0694 or Dan Sauer at 274-8328.

Rebuilding Together. Dayton

Need help with home repairs??

Rebuilding Together provides, at no cost, home repairs to qualified applicants. The program is

Visit us online: <http://www.mvnadayton.org/> particularly interested in assisting older residents, but assistance is not limited to older persons.

Applicants must: own their own home, be at household income 80% of median or less, have no outstanding real estate taxes, and are unable to do the work themselves but are willing to cooperate and work with the program.

Contact Rebuilding Together through FROC. Verletta Jackson, 333-3281 or call 937-229-4893 for the project office. They have an application deadline, but their spokesperson said quite often the deadline is flexed for good cause.

November Meeting Pot Luck

Tuesday, November 11, 2008
